

10 good reasons to become a member of the VLGS

Representation of interests

We contribute to having our interests strongly represented with legislators and authorities while promoting the framework of philanthropy. In doing so we also represent the interests of your foundation.

Philanthropic position

We cooperate on implementing the financial center strategy which has defined philanthropy as one of its pillars. We are particularly committed to issues surrounding the cross-border activities of foundations.

Experience exchange

We provide a platform for foundations and other partners to exchange experiences. In doing so, we promote both the competence of the central stakeholders and cooperation between various foundations.

Standards

We are committed to foundation management standards and provide you with assistance in managing your foundation's activities.

Continuing education

Together with our partners we promote the professionalism of the sector and provide you with discounted access to continuing education events.

Consultation

We respond to your questions surrounding the creation and managing of charitable foundations, help you establish contacts with experts and provide you with access to information.

Science

By launching and supporting scientific projects on significant questions of foundation law we contribute to further developing the position and awareness of foundations.

Information

We provide a continuous stream of information, through our newsletter, through lectures and media releases, on important developments and events in the foundation world. We provide foundations a platform for their communication on our Website.

Communication

We engage in active communication, both domestically and abroad, aimed at promoting the positions of foundations, raising awareness of the sector and supporting you in the communication efforts of your foundation.

Network

Through our membership in DAFNE, our partnership with national foundations and with scientific institutions, we have developed an international network which makes it possible for us to monitor current developments and to engage in an exchange of experiences.
